

1935 motor cycles in the ROYAL ENFIELD tradition

Behind every Royal Enfield is a tradition of many years of exhaustive research, clever design, careful manufacture, handsome appearance and impressive performance. The new models will enhance the high reputation earned by their predecessors.

The Royal Enfield Works are scientifically equipped with the most modern machinery for the production of first quality motor cycles on a large scale. From the 148 c.c. "Cycar" to the 976 c.c. "Big Twin" there is a mount for every motor cyclist—every model a leader in its class.
